

Please protect the public's right to have balanced tv, radio, newspaper and internet coverage by limiting the rights of these conglomerates to own no more than they do now and better yet much less.